THE

The placing of the Lords in Parliament, and other Assemblies, and Conferences of Councils as established by Act of Parliament, 31 H. 8. 10.

FOrasmuch as in all great Councils and Congregations of men, having sundry Degrees and Offices in the Common-wealth, it is very requisite and convenient that an Order should be had and taken for the placing and sitting of such persons as be bound to resort to the same, to the intent that they knowing their places, may use the same without displeasure or let of the Councils. Therefore the Kings most Royal Majestie although it appertaineth unto his Prerogative Royals, to give such Honour, Reputation, and placing to his Councellors, and other his Subjects as shall be seeming to his most Excellent Wisdome, is nevertheless pleased and contented for an Order to be had and taken in this his most high Court of Parliament, that it shall be Enacted in manner and forme as hereafter followeth.

1. That

1. That no perſon or perſons of what Eſtate, Degree or Condition ſoever, he or they be (except only the Kings Children) ſhall at any time hereafter attempt or preſume, to ſit or have place at any ſide of the Cloth of Eſtate in the Parliament Chamber, neither of one hand of the Kings Majeſty, nor of the other, whether the Kings Majeſty be there perſonally preſent or abſent. None ſhall ſit on either ſide of the cloath of State.

2. Every perſon which ſhall have the office of Vicegerent Eccleſiaſtical of the grant of the K. Highneſs, his heires or ſucceſſors ſhall ſit and be placed in this and all Parliaments hereafter, to be holden on the right ſide of the Parliament Chamber, and upon the ſame Form that the Arch-Biſhop of Canterbury ſitteth on, and above the ſaid Arch-Biſhop and his ſucceſſors, and ſhall have voice in every Parliament to aſſent or diſſent, as other the Lords of the Parliament. The Kings Vicegerent.

3. That next to the Vicegerent ſhal ſit the Archbiſhop of Canterbury, and then next to him on the ſame forme and ſide the Arch-Biſhop of York, and next to him on the ſame forme and ſide the Biſhop of London, and next to him on the ſame ſide and form, the Biſhop of Dureſme, and next to him on the ſame ſide and form the Biſhop of Wincheſter, and then all other Biſhops ſhall ſit and be placed on the ſame ſide after their ancienties as it hath been accuſtomed. How the Biſh. are placed in Parliament.

4. That,
The Lord Chancellor
The Lord Treaſurer
The Lord Preſident of the Kings Council.
and
The Lord Privy Seal,

Being of the Degree of Barons of the Parliament, or above, ſhall ſit and be placed as well in this, as in all other Parliaments hereafter to be holden on the left ſide of the ſaid Parliament Chamber, on the higher part of the form of the ſame ſide above all Dukes, except only ſuch as ſhall happen to be the Kings Son, the Kings Brother, the Kings Uncle, the Kings Nephew, or the Kings Brothers or Siſters Sons.

5. That the Great Chamberlain / The Conſtable / The Marſhal / The Lord Admiral / The Great Maſter or Lord Steward / The Kings Chamberlain, &c. ſhall ſit and be placed after the Lord Privy Seal, in manner and form following, that is to ſay, every of them ſhall ſit and be placed, above all other perſonages, being of the ſame Eſtates or Degrees, that they ſhall happen to be of.

The Kings Secretary.

6. That the Kings chief Secretary, being of the Degree of a Baron of the Parliament, ſhall ſit and be placed afore and above all Barons, not having any of the Offices aforementioned; and if he be a Biſhop, that then he ſhall ſit and be placed above all other Biſhops, not having any of the Offices aforementioned.

7. All Dukes / Marqueſſes. / Earles. / Viſcounts. / and / Barons. } not aformentioned not having any of the Offices aforeſaid ſhall ſit and be placed after their Ancienty, as it hath been accuſtomed.

8. That if any perſon or perſons which at any time hereaf-hereafter ſhall happen to have any of the ſaid Offices of

Lord Chancellour,
Lord Treaſurer,
Lord Preſident of the Kings Council,
Lord Privy-Seale.
Or Chief Secretary,

who is under the Degree of a Baron of the Parliament, by reaſon whereof they can have no intereſt to give any Aſſent or diſſent in the ſaid Houſe, that then in every ſuch caſe, ſuch of them as ſhall happen to be under the degree of a Baron, ſhall ſit and be placed at the uppermoſt part of the woolſacks, in the midſt of the ſaid Parliament Chamber, either there to ſit upon one form, or upon the uppermoſt woolſack, the one of them above the other in Order, as is above rehearſed.

The Places of great Officers under the Degree of Barons.

9. That in all Tryalls of Treaſons by Peers of this Realm, if any of the Peers that ſhall be called hereafter to be Triers of ſuch Treaſons, ſhall happen to have any of the Offices aforeſaid, that then they having ſuch Offices, ſhall ſit and be placed according to their Offices, above all the other Peers that ſhall be called to ſuch Tryall, in manner and form as is above mentioned and rehearſed.

Places in Tryal by Peers.

10. That as well in all Parliaments, and in all other Aſſembles and Conferences of Councils. The Lord Chancellor, the Lord Treaſurer, the Lord Preſidents, the Lord Privy-Seal, the great Chamberlain, the Conſtable, the Marſhal, the Lord Admiral, the Grand Maſter, or Lord Steward, the Kings Chamberlain, and the Kings chief Secretary, ſhall ſit and be placed in ſuch order and faſhion as is above rehearſed, and not in any other place.
